A Prophetic Word for Beit Simcha

On July 24th, Glenn introduced Nancy Hahn, an old friend. Nancy brought forth a prophetic word for the congregation, from which the following are excerpts, with Glenn's comments in brackets.

"God showed me things in history that apply to us here now and that take us into the future. In Chuck Pierce's message [at the Messiah Conference], he mentioned ancient wells and said we are coming into a new season of wells. Wells are deposits of the Holy Spirit, wells of truth in the ground, dug by our forefathers. We are tapping into the wells that have been dug by our forefathers and we take it into the future. Chuck said the water levels were rising in Philadelphia. I saw a river rising and flowing from Philadelphia to the Lehigh Valley. It was glowing, living water—an ancient river connected to ancient wells. Then I saw a deep ancient well in Pennsylvania..."

Nancy then recounted the history of this area—William Penn's vision for religious freedom and unity amongst diversity, as well as Zinzendorf's vision for unity in the Lehigh Valley and beyond.

"So today, as Rabbi Glenn moves into and goes further into uniting with Gentile pastors, it is happening. [Glenn prays with other leaders in One Voice and Share the Power.] What I want to convey to you is that we're still reaping, we're still drinking from wells that were dug by God through men, but I want to bring it to today now. The Lehigh Valley and Philadelphia are still critical keys in unleashing the new... This congregation is a vital key. I can't stress enough what I felt from God concerning this congregation (voice sounding tearful) in the Lehigh Valley—and Mark Shulman's congregation. We are tapping into these ancient wells.

"In all the research I've done, there are many reasons that the prophecy and the vision that Penn and Zinzendorf got didn't work. What the Lord showed me... is that you were not part of it. There were no Messianic Jews; there were no Jews in Philadelphia at the time of William Penn, nor in the Lehigh Valley at the time of the Moravians in the 1730's. Gentiles have over time tried to bring unity, and have had partial success, but have always failed. The Lord showed me this is one of the major reasons why; He wants to see One New Man: Jew and Gentile united in Messiah, so you're a vital key to drawing upon these ancient wells and bringing forth the redemptive calling in Pennsylvania and the Lehigh Valley.

"The redemptive calling is unity, because our state is special. As you go back in history, you see from the very beginning a unity with the Indians that was not present with the other colonies. And also, you see the Enemy coming in and stopping it... The stronghold over Pennsylvania is division, so the One New Man movement is extremely vital in Pennsylvania. Therefore this Messianic Congregation is a vital key in God's plan for bringing forth and continuing to bring forth, drawing from these ancient wells. There is no true unity until Romans 11 is fulfilled. "I also heard a sound; it was like a jingling, rattling sound. Later on the Lord showed me it was the bones coming together as in Ezekiel. I also heard a bubbling sound, and that was God pushing up the water, unclogging these ancient wells, bringing the bones together using you.

"The Lord is speaking to you today, if you are hearing, about your link as a congregation and individually as Messianic Jews and Gentiles here today. He's connecting you to the past so you can go forward. So now I would like to share what the Lord showed me about this congregation specifically: Israel is small, but is a key to the world and to the end times. Likewise, the Lord said to me that you, this congregation, are a key to releasing revival and in unclogging the ancient wells in the Valley and in our State, which will join in the entire movement in the nation and the world. Don't worry about being small or about the Gentiles not getting it. God is pleased that you are striving to promote the One New Man concept and studies in the Valley. Just continue to be faithful to be in their presence, as Glenn joins with the leaders in prayer and as you join in the various outreaches. [Look for our Becoming One studies and dance workshops on our web site, and let others know.] When God looks down on this Valley, he sees the One New Man when you are present... It is fulfilling Ezekiel 22:30... And the Lord showed me that just your presence promotes unity and is bringing forth the redemptive calling.

"The Lord also showed me that you have built on the foundation and come into maturity. [The foundation is stronger emphasis on outreach and discipleship—15 people are in discipleship already—as well as a growing leadership team.] You are now in a new season... I also saw you bursting out of the walls of this place through witnessing and proclamation, and I heard the sound of the shofar. The reason it was blowing was because 'there is going to be an exponential increase and growth in this congregation.' [The Lord told Rabbi Glenn to form a building committee and we've started looking at possibilities.] It's not because He desires a big congregation, but because He desires to bring in more in this new season. The Lord says, 'Are you ready?'

"He was singing a song over and exulting over the congregation and individuals. He said very strongly, "I have given you the name, Beit Simcha. In this new season, as I sing a song over you, I am releasing you in joy. There is going to be more of a release of joy in this congregation. This is important for what the Lord has planned... He wants this house to exhibit its name given by God. I also saw the dance team going forth more—like you will be dancing in the streets. [Nancy didn't know that we had planned outreaches with dance near Musikfest on August 7 and 14. Many people saw, heard the message about Messiah Yeshua.] Yeshua made that clear that the dance team in this place is going forth.

"So, what do we have to do? This is what God's promising. We have to hear it, receive it, lay down sins, old habits that are encumbering you and let God change you and bring you into the new... In the new season these old ways won't work; you'll find yourselves in states of confusion. The Lord says repent of old ways of thinking and doing and accept the flow from God of the changes because God wants to change us for the hour we're in, for the new season. Don't resist... Let Him change you inside so you can flow where you belong in the army and in the congregation. That will require more time with Him. The Lord is putting forth a call to come closer to Him. He's been wooing the Bride of Christ—Gentile and Jew alike—for years now. I have heard for years now from the Lord, 'I'm wooing my people. They need to come closer. I want more intimacy. I love them. I want to love on them. I want them to receive my love.' (Continued...)

“There are good things in the new for us, but in the world things are going to get worse. The Lord showed me a storm is coming.... We don't have a choice anymore. If He is Lord of your life, then He wants your time. We can't play games anymore. The Lord showed me that for this coming year and seasons ahead that He will uncover those who are with Him and those who are not, and it is necessary at this time for the identity of the remnant to be revealed. Chuck Pierce had mentioned the cover coming off the Messianic movement. Our identity has to be revealed to the world that we follow the Lord....

“The Lord said He wants this house to be not only a house of joy, but a house of prayer. He wants more fervent, united, corporate prayer for the hour we live in. He's asking us to be awake with Him in this hour before things get darker—there's so much to be awake for. A vital component for bringing salvation in Esther's time was fasting and prayer. You are looking and asking God to save more Jewish people. How much time are you willing to invest in prayer? The Lord is proclaiming Isaiah 60 over you: Arise and shine for the glory of the Lord has risen upon you, and deep darkness covers the earth but you shall rise and the light of the Lord shall shine through you.”
